Investment activities

During the year, the Fund invested in Unsecured Loan Notes issued by MoneySpot Finance, a participant in the Australian small and medium personal and business loan segment of the credit market. Throughout the year, the Fund's assets were wholly invested in Unsecured Loan Notes and cash balances were retained only for the purpose of meeting the ongoing costs of administering the Fund.

The Unsecured Loan Notes issued by MoneySpot Finance and held by the Fund attracted coupon rates of between 7% and 22.2% per annum.

The coupon rates issued at 7% reflect a relatively small holding of Notes issued with 7 to 10 days' term facilitating the making of offers of redemption to unitholders.

Value of assets and units issued

Once again in the past twelve months, the Assets of the Fund increased materially. As the value of the Unsecured Loan Notes held by the Fund have not been revalued, the increase in the value of Assets is wholly due to an increase in Units on Issue and, in the case of the current period, due to the increase in Class C units.

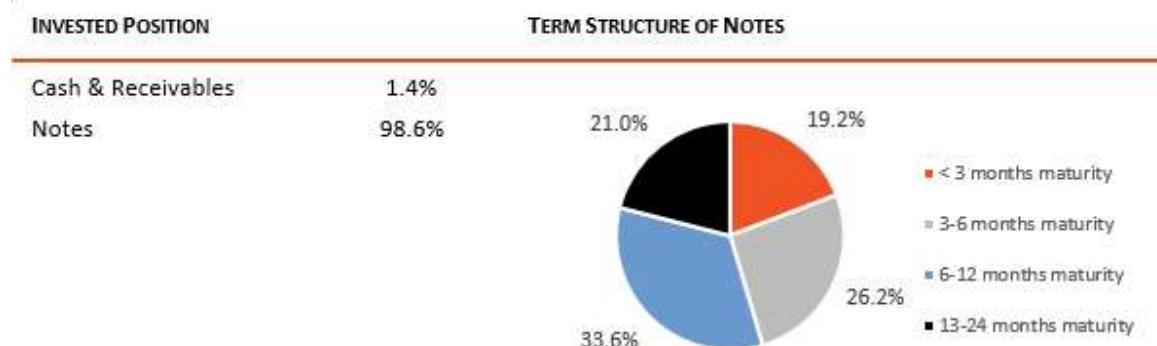

The table below sets out the value of units on issue and the corresponding Financial Assets of the Fund at financial year end:

Independent Auditor’s Report to the members of MoneySpot Investment Fund

Report on the Financial Report

We have audited the accompanying financial report of MoneySpot Investment Fund (the “Fund”), which comprises the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2023, the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information, and the directors' declaration.

In our opinion, the financial report of MoneySpot Investment Fund is in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, including:

- i. giving a true and fair view of the Fund’s financial position as at 30 June 2023 and of its performance for the year ended on that date; and
- ii. complying with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Regulations 2001.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the Fund in accordance with the auditor independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board’s APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

We confirm that the independence declaration required by the Corporations Act 2001, which has been given to the directors of the Responsible Entity of the Fund (“directors”), would be in the same terms if given to the directors as at the time of this auditor’s report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the financial report of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial report as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Financial Assets (Note 3(f), 4, 9)
At 30 June 2023, the Fund held financial assets classified at amortised cost and valued at $88.5 million. These assets represented 98% of the total assets of the Fund and comprise unsecured loan notes, with a term of 7 days to 2 years, issued by ACL holders that participate in the small, medium, and personal loan segment of the credit market or short-term unsecured loans on similar terms. Those loan notes are issued by MoneySpot Finance Pty Ltd, in accordance with the	Our procedures around financial assets included, but were not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Substantively testing loan notes issued to the Fund during the year. ▪ Performing substantive analytical review procedures on loan notes. ▪ Enquiring as to the financial position of the note issuer, being MoneySpot Finance Pty Ltd and the financial position of the MoneySpot Finance Group.

Other Information

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Fund's annual report for the year ended 30 June 2023 but does not include the financial report and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial report does not cover the other information and accordingly we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial report, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial report or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the directors for the Financial Report

The directors of the Fund are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act 2001 and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the directors are responsible for assessing the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Fund or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

mazars

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

3. Significant accounting policies

(a) Statement of Compliance

These financial statements are general purpose financial statements which have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, other authoritative pronouncements and interpretations of the Australian Accounting Standards Board, the Fund's Constitution and the Corporations Act 2001 in Australia.

Compliance with Australian Accounting Standards, as issued by the AASB, ensures that the financial statements and notes thereto comply with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"), as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB").

The following significant accounting policies have been adopted in the preparation and presentation of the financial statements.

3. Significant accounting policies (continued)

(b) Basis of preparation

This general-purpose financial report has been prepared using historical cost basis.

The Consolidated Statement of Financial Position is presented on a liquidity basis. Assets and liabilities are presented in decreasing order of liquidity and are not distinguished between current and non-current. All balances are expected to be recovered or settled within 12 months, except for investments in financial assets and net assets attributable to unitholders. The amounts expected to be received or settled in relation to these balances cannot be readily determined.

All amounts are presented in Australian dollars as the functional and presentational currency of the Fund.

(c) Going concern basis

The financial report has been prepared on a going concern basis.

(d) Revenue and income recognition

Revenue

Revenue is recognised and measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable using a five-step model for recognising revenue from contracts with customers. According to the standard, revenue must be allocated to performance obligations based on relative transaction prices. A performance obligation is defined as a promise to transfer goods and/or services to a customer. The recognition takes place over time or at a specific point in time, with passing of controls as the key criterion.

Interest Income

Interest income is recognised as the interest accrues using the effective interest rate method, which is the rate that exactly discounts future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial instrument to the net carrying amount of the financial asset.

(e) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash held at bank.

(f) Financial instruments

Non-derivative financial instruments

Non-derivative financial instruments comprise of cash and cash equivalents, financial assets, loans and receivables, as defined by AASB 132 'Financial Instruments: Presentation' and are categorised in accordance with AASB 9 'Financial Instruments.' This classification is determined by the purpose underpinning the acquisition of the investment.

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial instruments, incorporating financial assets and financial liabilities, are initially recognised using trade date accounting i.e. when the Fund becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value plus, in the case of a financial assets or financial liabilities not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset.

Effective interest rate method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a debt instrument and of allocating interest income over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the debt instrument or (where appropriate) a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition. Income is recognised on an effective interest rate basis for debt instruments other than those financial assets 'at fair value through profit or loss'.

Derecognition

Financial assets are derecognised if the Fund's contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial assets expire, or if the Fund transfers the financial assets to another party without retaining substantially all the risks and rewards attached to the asset. Financial liabilities are derecognised if the Fund's obligations specified in the contract expire or are discharged or cancelled.

Impairment

The financial assets held at amortised cost are subject to impairment testing. At the end of each reporting period, the Fund assesses the expected credit loss attributable to the financial assets and determines whether additional impairment is required.

Unsecured Loan Notes

The Fund invests in Unsecured Loan Notes which are issued by related party, MoneySpot Finance Pty Ltd ("MoneySpot Finance" or the "Note Issuer"), a participant in the small, medium and personal loan segment of the credit market with a term of between 7 days and 2 years.

Although the notes issued are secured by a general security deed over MoneySpot Finance's present and after acquired property, the notes are 'unsecured notes' pursuant to section 283BH of the Corporations Act.

The notes have a face value of $1.00 per note with a coupon rate of approximately 15% per annum for Class A unitholders and from April 2021, a coupon rate of approximately 17% per annum for Class B unitholders, and a coupon rate of approximately 22% per annum for Class C, although this may change over time in accordance with changes in credit markets. A proportion of Notes issued with 7 to 10 days' maturity are held with a coupon rate of 7% to facilitate the making of offers of redemption to unitholders. Interest on the notes is payable monthly.

Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangement. In accordance with AASB 132 where unitholders funds are classified as a financial liability and disclosed as such in the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position, they are referred to as "Net assets attributable to unitholders".

Derivative financial instruments

During the year, the Fund did not hold any derivative financial instruments to hedge its interest rate risk exposures.

(g) Taxation

Under the current tax legislation, the Fund is not subject to income tax provided that the unitholders are presently entitled to the income of the Fund and that the Fund entirely distributes its taxable income.

There is no taxable income of the Fund to which the unitholders are not currently entitled. Additionally, the Fund's Constitution requires the distribution of the full amount of the net taxable income of the Fund to unitholders each year. As a result, deferred taxes have not been recognised in the financial statements in relation to the differences between carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. This includes taxes on capital gains which could arise in the event of a sale of investments for the amount at which they are stated in the financial statements. In the event that the taxable gains are realised by the Fund, these gains would be included in the taxable income and assessable in the hands of the unitholders.

(h) Distributions

In accordance with the Fund's Constitution, the Responsible Entity must pay distributions to unitholders within 90 days after the Distribution Calculation Date. According to the current Product Disclosure Statement ("PDS") dated 29 September 2022, the intention is that distributions will be paid monthly.

(i) Payables

Trade and other payables are recognised when the Fund becomes obliged to make future payments resulting from the purchase of goods and services.

3. Significant accounting policies (continued)(j) Applications and redemptions

Applications received for units in the Fund are recorded net of any entry fees payable prior to the issue of units in the Fund. Redemptions from the Fund are recorded gross of any exit fees payable after the cancellation of units redeemed.

(k) Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

Management has adhered to the Fund's unit pricing policy which sets out the basis upon which the units of the Fund have been valued, a copy of which is available upon request.

In the application of the accounting policies, management are required to make judgments, estimates and assumptions about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstance, the results of which form the basis of making the judgments. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods. The assumptions and methods used in the determination of the value of financial instruments are outlined in Note 3(f) of these financial statements.

(l) Goods and services tax ("GST")

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST except:

- Where the amount of GST is not recoverable from the taxation authority, it is recognised as part of acquisition of an asset or part of an item of expense; or
- For receivables and payables which are recognised inclusive of GST.

The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the tax authority is included as part of receivables or payables. Cash flows are included in the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows on a gross basis. The GST component of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities which is recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is classified as operating cash flows.

The GST incurred on the costs of various services provided to the Fund by third parties such as audit fees, management fees, administration fees and legal fees were subjected to the Reduced Input Tax Credits ("RITCs") in accordance with legislation.

The following RITC rates were applied by the Fund during the reporting year ended 30 June 2023.

Services Supplied	RITC Rate
Trustee and RE services	55%
Investment manager	75%

4. Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Fund seeks to maintain the capital value of all investments made. The principal risk to this objective is the default of a Note Issuer on maturity of a Note due to a lack of liquidity or insolvency.

As the Fund invests wholly in Notes issued by MoneySpot Finance, the Assets of the Fund and the principal investments made by investors are exposed to the underlying operational and credit risk management of the Note Issuer.

Historically, MoneySpot Finance's portfolio default rates have ranged from 4% to 10% of the sums receivable from borrowers with default rates at the higher end of the range typically experienced during periods of high growth in the loan portfolio.

Were the Note Issuer to experience actual default rates significantly above this level for an extended period of time, then the risk of default on the maturity of a Note will be increased.

In this situation, the options for the Fund include, but may not be limited to, suspending interest payments for a specified period and/or extending the maturity date of all or a proportion of the maturing Unsecured Loan Notes where the Custodian is satisfied the Credit Provider can recover or exercising the Fund's rights granted in the security deed.

In the event of a Note Issuer failing to make an interest payment or repaying a maturing note, the Issuer is said to be in Default. It is likely in this event that the Fund would revalue the Unsecured Loan Notes held by the Fund. A devaluation of the Assets held by the Fund would result in a decrease in the Unit Price of the respective Classes of the Fund.

(a) Return risk

This is the risk that the Assets the Fund acquires may not be able to provide sufficient income to cover the Fund's Administrative Costs. As a result, the Fund may not generate an income and may not meet its targeted return rate or in some circumstances make a loss.

An investment in the Fund is not the same as depositing money in an account with a bank and an investment in the Fund is riskier than depositing money in a transactional bank account or term deposit with a bank.

An investment in the Fund is also not covered by the depositor protections available to depositors that make a deposit with an Australian Depository Institution ("ADI"). Returns are not guaranteed.

(b) Creditor risk

There is a risk that either the entities in which the Fund invests, for example, MoneySpot Finance, or the borrowers to whom entities, such as MoneySpot Finance, lend may not be able to meet their financial obligations to pay interest and/or principal in respect of the Fund's investments or loans when they fall due, which could impact upon the Fund's performance and the value of Units.

4. Financial risk management objectives and policies (continued)

As at the close of the reporting period, MoneySpot Finance had approximately $7.9m in secured debt and $2.0m in unsecured debt in addition to the Notes held by the Fund. Please note these amounts may fluctuate up and down over time. With respect to the secured debt, MoneySpot Finance has granted a general security deed over all of its present and after acquired assets other than real property for $5.8m. MoneySpot Finance has granted an additional $2.1m security over real property. These security ranks ahead of the security granted to Note Holders under the note deed poll until such time as the security is released. When repaid, the security granted to the lenders will be released and the Note Holders' security should rank first. There is no prescribed time frame within which MoneySpot Finance must repay the secured debt.

As disclosed above, MoneySpot Finance, including its operating subsidiaries has entered into external finance arrangements other than its Note Issuance program to fund its loan book growth.

MoneySpot Finance may undertake additional significant borrowings to accommodate the growth of the loan book and the conditions of those arrangements are likely to include granting security over all present and after acquired property other than land in favour of the lenders of that debt.

The ranking of such security to external borrowers may be higher than that granted to the Fund.

(c) Regulation risk

The entities that the Fund invests in, issue loans that are usually unsecured, smaller, of a shorter duration and attract a higher fee or interest rate than standard secured loans usually offered by a bank. As a result, the consumer loan sector has attracted attention from government regulators and consumer advocates in the past who have argued for tighter regulation and a reduced fee structure. While the consumer loan sector generally and small and medium amount credit contracts specifically are subject to prescriptive government regulation, there is a risk that changes to the regulatory framework may affect the Fund meeting its investment return objective.

The Financial Sector Reform Bill 2022 was passed by both houses of Parliament on 2 December 2022.

The Bill includes amendments to the Credit Act relating to small amount credit contracts and came into force on 12 June 2023 and apply to MoneySpot Finance.

The legislated changes seek to enhance general compliance with the Credit Act and enhance protections for consumers. The changes include:

- A presumption that a consumer loan is unsuitable to a consumer who has entered into two or more Small Amount Credit Contracts (SACC) in the past 90 days;
- Small Amount Credit Contracts must have equal repayments and equal repayment intervals over the life of the loan, subject to certain limited exceptions;
- Prohibition against Licensees from charging monthly fees in respect of the residual term of the SACC where the consumer fully repays the loan early;
- Prohibition against Licensees making unsolicited communications to a consumer to apply for or enter into a SACC in certain circumstances;
- Requirements for Licensees to document in writing their assessment that a small amount credit contract is not unsuitable for a consumer;
- SACC providers are prohibited from making referrals in certain circumstances.

(c) Regulation risk (continued)

It is likely that the consumer loan sector will remain a focus of government regulation and further changes to the regulatory framework may affect the Fund meeting its investment return objective.

(d) Concentration risk

Currently, the Fund invests substantially in Unsecured Loan Notes issued by MoneySpot Finance for the primary purpose of funding the loan book of MoneySpot Finance. The Fund's stated strategy is to invest the first $100 million it raises in Unsecured Loan Notes issued by MoneySpot Finance.

MoneySpot Finance is a related entity of the Responsible Entity and participates in the small and medium loans segment of the credit market. It will use the funds it receives from the Fund to further participate in the small and medium loans segment of the market. While this segment can be especially profitable with a lower overall default risk due to the spread of loans over thousands of borrowers, all the loans are being made by one entity, MoneySpot Finance. The Fund will therefore depend on the performance of MoneySpot Finance to be able to lend and collect interest and principal repayments from its borrowers, and this risk is not spread across different note issuers.

The Responsible Entity has determined that once the initial $100 million threshold is exceeded the Responsible Entity may approve investments in Unsecured Notes issued by the wholly-owned subsidiaries of MoneySpot Finance operating in the United States of America.

If the Responsible Entity determines to make such investments a revised Product Disclosure Statement shall be issued detailing the nature of the Fund's expansion of its investment activities.

(e) Defaults and non-performing loans

Investors should note the Responsible Entity believes it is inevitable that some of MoneySpot Finance's loans will become delinquent as a result of borrowers' failure or inability to pay, despite diligent credit assessment measures undertaken by MoneySpot Finance. Therefore, Investors should be aware the Fund will bear some risk in this regard.

If default rates in the consumer loan portfolio were to occur on a larger than expected scale, the Note Issuer's ability to pay the coupon rate and principal repayments under the Unsecured Loan Notes it issues the Fund may be negatively affected.

Historically, MoneySpot Finance has incurred portfolio default rates ranging from 4% to 10% of the sums receivable from borrowers with default rates at the higher end of the range typically experienced during periods of high growth in the loan portfolio. Historical default rates however may not be repeated in the future and there is a risk that default rates in the future could vary significantly.

(f) Loan origination risk

A failure by MoneySpot Finance or other Credit Provider to deploy funds to its Borrowers may compromise the Note Issuers' ability to make interest payments on the Unsecured Loan Notes held by the Fund.

If there is insufficient demand for funds from the Credit Providers the Fund may not be fully invested. Significant cash balances on the Fund's balance sheet or investments in assets that earn less than the Targeted Return rate would compromise the ability of the Fund to meet the Targeted Returns for the respective unit classes.

4. Financial risk management objectives and policies (continued)

(g) Legal & regularity change

Changes in laws (including taxation laws) or their interpretation, including changes in the practice and policy of regulators, may have a negative impact on the Fund. In addition, if the AFSL of the Responsible Entity or the ACL of MoneySpot Finance is suspended or revoked, then this could impact adversely on the Fund. A deficiency in loan documentation could also, in some circumstances, adversely affect the return from the Fund's investments.

(h) Related parties and conflicts of interest

The Responsible Entity has significant roles and responsibilities in relation to the Fund. It is a related party and is a wholly-owned entity of MoneySpot Finance and the Fund is the sole holder of the Unsecured Loan Notes issued by MoneySpot Finance. There is a risk that decision-making between the entities may not be impartial. This may adversely affect the viability of the Fund.

(i) Operational and procedural risk

The success of the Fund is dependent upon the operational stability of the Fund, in particular the operating and administration procedures and operational controls established by the Responsible Entity. A breakdown in the administrative procedures or operational controls may cause a disruption of day-to-day Fund operations. Such interruptions may arise internally through human error or technology and infrastructure failure or possible external events such as natural disasters or regulatory changes. Whilst procedures to address such occurrences are in place and the procedures are monitored, these risks cannot be mitigated entirely

(j) Liquidity risk

The Fund is illiquid. This means investors will only be able to redeem units from the Fund in response to a withdrawal offer made by the Responsible Entity. The Responsible Entity can only make withdrawal offers if there are sufficient assets available to it to satisfy any withdrawal requests made in response to the offer. The availability of assets is primarily affected by the returns the Fund receives from its investments, in particular, the payment of coupon amounts by MoneySpot Finance and repayment of Unsecured Loan Notes on maturity.

(k) Fraud

There is a risk that borrowers may deliberately fabricate evidence to support their loan applications and that they have no intention of paying off their loan. Although MoneySpot Finance has procedures in place to detect fraudulent applications, the risk of fraud cannot be completely discounted.

(l) Multi-unit class risk

Interests in the Fund are divided into Units and the Units are further divided into Unit Classes. Each Unit Class receives the net distributable income attributable to its assets, being the interest income on Unsecured Loan Notes less expenses. However, there is a risk that the expenses or liabilities of one Unit Class may affect the value of the other Unit Classes in the Fund and if one Unit Class is unable to pay its expenses or there is a default on a Note held by another Class, the Fund as a whole may be impacted.

Although Class Assets are segregated in the Sub Trusts, there is legally no separation between the assets and liabilities of each Unit Class and investors have only a beneficial interest in those Assets.

This fee is accrued monthly and is payable quarterly in arrears out of the assets of the Fund from the commencement of the Fund to the date of the final distribution following a winding up of the Fund in accordance with its Constitution. The value of the assets will be determined as at the most recent valuation time.

The ongoing management fee comprise of an investment management fee of 1.4% per annum of the net assets of the Fund.

7. Administration costs and recoverable expenses

The Constitution of the Fund allows for all properly incurred expenses to be recovered directly from the Fund and does not place any limit on the amount or types of expenses that can be recovered. If applicable, when expenses are paid by the Fund, they will be deducted from the Fund's assets and reflected in the Fund's unit price. Expenses are generally paid when incurred.

Expenses incurred by the Responsible Entity during the financial year and attributable to the Fund relate to the costs of maintaining the Compliance Committee, Insurance and Investor Services.

The estimated annual administrative expenses of the Fund is estimated to be 0.8% per annum of the Fund's assets.

Administration costs and recoverable expenses for the financial year ending 30 June 2023 amounted to $490,825 (30 June 2022: $320,698).
