This document should be read in conjunction with the Product Disclosure Statement available on our website and is not a summary of the product features or terms of the product.

This document does not take into account any person's individual objectives, financial situation or needs. Investors must make their own judgement about the appropriateness of an investment given their personal circumstances and should consider obtaining personal financial advice before investing.

1. About this Target Market Determination (TMD)

This TMD describes the Target Market for the 30-Days' Notice Unit Class of the Moneyspot Investment Fund. It sets out the overall class of investors that fall within the Target Market of the Class, based on the Class's key attributes and consumers' probable investment objectives, needs and financial situation.

In addition, the TMD outlines the circumstances that may trigger a review of the target market by the Responsible Entity.

2. Target market

The target market for this product

This product is considered to be appropriate for consumers with the following objectives, needs and financial situation.

Consumers' that:

- are seeking an investment that aims to distribute income regularly,
- are seeking investment returns unrelated to those generated in other asset classes, such as listed shares, real estate or bonds,
- are seeking investment returns higher than rates available on bank deposit products,
- have the financial capacity to sustain a loss of capital, and
- have an investment timeframe of no less than 31 days, and
- have access to sufficient liquid assets to meet living costs and unexpected expected expenses.

Intended Consumer Use for this product

This product is likely to be appropriate for consumers who intend to use the product:

- as a satellite or core component of an investment portfolio representing up to a maximum of 50% of their investable assets¹ over a full economic cycle.

1. Investable Assets: Those assets that the investor has available for investment, excluding the family home.

Appropriateness

The Responsible Entity has reviewed the past performance of the Fund and developed the 30-Days' Notice Unit Class to meet the stated objectives. The designed attributes are likely to be suitable to consumers with the investment objectives, needs and financial situation indicated in the table below.

Consumer Attributes	Indicator	Product Key Attributes
Investment Objectives
Capital Growth	✗	The investment is not designed to generate capital growth and all income is to be distributed on a monthly basis. The investment option is NOT capital guaranteed. The Responsible Entity seeks to maintain capital value of all investments made but there is no guarantee that the Unit Price of the Class will not fall below the price at the time of acquisition.
Capital Preservation	✓	The principal risk to this objective is the default of a Note Issuer due to a lack of liquidity or insolvency. The assets of the Class and the principal investments made by investors are exposed to the underlying operational and credit risk management of the Note Issuer.
Capital Guaranteed	✗	The investment option is not Capital Guaranteed
Regular Income	✓	The Responsible Entity seeks to provide monthly distributions.
Product Use
Standalone or Major Investment > 50% of investable assets ¹ .	✗	This investment option is unlikely to be appropriate for consumers intending to invest the majority of their investable assets due to the possibility of loss of capital.
Core Component 30-50% of investable assets ¹ .	✓	The investment option may provide diversification benefits when included in a portfolio of other assets such as listed shares, real estate or bonds. In this way, an investment may reduce the volatility in returns of a diversified portfolio.
Minor Investment <30% of investable assets ¹ .	✓	This attribute of the investment makes a core or minor allocation appropriate in a diversified portfolio of investment assets. Investors should apply prudent diversification principles and seek professional advice.

Investment Timeframe

Short (< 30 Days)	✗	Investment withdrawals are subject to conditions. A minimum investment period of 31 Days applies and the option is therefore not suitable to consumers who may require access to their funds at short notice.
Short (< 6 months)	✓	Investment withdrawals are subject to 30-Days' Notice. A minimum investment period of 31 Days applies from commencement and withdrawals requests can be lodged at any time after the expiry of the minimum investment period.
Medium (> 1 years)	✗	Consumers are advised that under some circumstances redemptions may be suspended, delayed or scaled-back delaying access to invested funds.
Long (> 5 years)	✗	This investment option has not been designed to deliver capital growth or to be held by consumers for extended periods of time. Other investments may be better suited in consumers with those objectives.

Need to make withdrawals

Daily	✗	This investment option is not suitable to consumer requiring daily or weekly access to invested funds.
Weekly	✗	Withdrawals are subject to conditions and a minimum investment period of 31 Days applies.
Monthly	✓	After the expiry of the minimum investment period, redemptions are subject to providing 30-Days' Notice.
Quarterly	✓	Consumers are advised that the Responsible Entity may refuse, suspend or scale-back redemptions.

- recommendations for acquisition under a statement of advice issued by a financial advisor will include assessment of the consumer's financial circumstances, needs and objectives.

4. Review triggers

A review of this TMD will be triggered if the Responsible Entity:

- makes a significant change to the key attributes of this product which affects the class of consumers targeted,
- determines that the performance of the product has or is likely to vary significantly from the investment performance objectives described in the Product Disclosure Statement.
- receives, in respect of a calendar quarter, a 10% increase in adverse feedback or complaints in relation to the design or distribution of this product from consumers,
- identifies a significant dealing that is inconsistent with this TMD, or
- commits a significant breach which relates to the design or distribution of this product.

The Responsible Entity may periodically engage external legal advisors to review the TMD for compliance with the legal obligations.

Where the Responsible Entity is notified by ASIC of serious concerns about the design or distribution of this product the Responsible Entity shall request an external legal review.

5. Review periods

The TMD review period shall be semi-annual commencing 2 January 2026. Thereafter, it will be reviewed:

- At least every 6 months, or
- As required, where a Review Trigger (see section 4) occurs, or where some other event or circumstance occurs that reasonably suggests to the Responsible Entity that this TMD is no longer appropriate or
- When the Responsible Entity otherwise decides to undertake a review.

The Responsible Entity shall undertake to complete reviews no later than 60 days after the review period.
